Step 3:

Log into <https://studentaid.gov/> with your FSA ID if you are borrowing federal loans and complete the following applicable steps:

All Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan Borrowers must:

- 1. Complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN) with the Department of Education
- 2. First-time borrowers must complete loan entrance counseling

All Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan Borrowers must:

- 1. Complete a credit check by submitting the "Direct PLUS Loan Application for Graduate or Professional Students"

If your credit is approved, you may then:

- 2. Complete the electronic Master Promissory Note (MPN)
- 3. First-time borrowers must complete loan entrance counseling

Step 4:

Use NetID to log into MyAccess at <https://myaccess.georgetown.edu/> to view your eStatement and account activity.

- 1. Step by step instructions on how to view your student account can be found at: <https://studentaccounts.georgetown.edu/faq/>
- 2. If your aid has paid in excess of the charges on your student account and you wish to request a refund, please follow the steps in the link above to do so

FAQS

QUESTION	ANSWER
When will my financial aid disburse?	The earliest that aid can disburse is 10 days prior to your first day of class.
What does a negative balance mean on my student account?	A negative balance indicates a pending refundable credit balance. This means that you may work with the Office of Revenue and Receivables to submit a refund request.
Why has my aid not disbursed it is less than 10 days prior to start of classes?	Please review your loan requirements via MyAccess to ensure that they are all complete. Additionally, if your enrollment has changed, contact our office as that may cause the delay as well.
I accepted the wrong amount of aid. How do I correct this?	Please email our office detailing the adjustment that you would like to correct and for which loan(s) and semester(s) that need to be updated.
Can I return a pending refund?	Yes, we have 120 days from the time of disbursement to return the funds to your lender. Please email our office and we will work together to process the return.
Where can I find my NetID and/or GUID?	Students can locate their NetID and/or GUID on their Admission Decision letter.
When will I receive my financial aid package?	Incoming students should receive their federal aid package prior to the deposit deadline.
If my credit hours change, will that affect my financial aid?	Changes in enrollment may change your financial aid package. Notify the Office of Student Financial Services if your enrollment changes or are considering changing your credit hours.
